

I would urge you not to implement any proposal regarding the no-call law which would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy protection. Our law has been working well and I do not understand why our protection should be brought down to the ineffective systems of other states. Thank you.